Nat Turner Trail Tour

Reportedly Nat Turner was born on this land. In 1831 one of the most successful Black Rebellions of our times took place in Southampton county, Virginia. This historic 2-hour lecture and tour will include a visit to:

- Cabin Pond - the place where the rebellion was staged.
- The Church yard where Nat Turner preached
- Land owned by Nat Turners descendants
- Existing Plantations that were attacked
- The Plantation where Enslaved Afrikans fought Nat Turner
- The Place "Cherry" Nat Turner wife lived
- Area of Nat's final hiding place
- Place where the Jail house/auction stood
- Black Head Sign - Post Road
- And Much more....
